

The Wisconsin Experience Seminar (Counseling Psychology 125) Executive Summary - Fall 2016

402 students enrolled in the course (up from 327 in 2015) across 22 sections (up from 19 in 2015)

- 359 freshmen, 43 transfers
- 259 L&S, 61 CALS, 60 Engineering, 14 Education, 6 Nursing, 2 SoHE students
- 226 females, 176 males
- 83 first generation students (up from 54 in 2015)
- 36 targeted minority students (up from 22 in 2015)
- 33 international students (up from 21 in 2015)

86.0% of students reported the course to be a valuable experience (up from 63.3% in 2015)

As a result of taking the course...

- 96.4% of students can engage with campus resources and opportunities to have a fulfilling Wisconsin Experience
- 93.9% of students can demonstrate the habits of a successful college student
- 93.3% of students can analyze how the dimensions of social identity impact others' experience at UW-Madison

3.34 was the average first semester GPA of Wisconsin Experience Seminar students (up from 3.25 in 2015)

Average First Semester GPA
	CP 125	Not CP 125
Fall 2015	3.25	3.26
Fall 2016	3.34	3.27

94.6% of students recommended their instructor for future sections

95.8% of students recommended their Undergraduate Teaching Fellow for future sections

22 instructors from across campus co-taught the course with 22 Undergraduate Teaching Fellows

- 100% of instructors reported teaching the Wisconsin Experience was a valuable experience
- 100% of Fellows reported teaching the Wisconsin Experience was a valuable experience